Let's Learn to Read Center - Room 1- Children discover books and to recognize the alphabet and know their phonic sounds. They see words and pictures, listen to sounds and learn to build and express their own ideas to each other. As they string beads they learn eye hand co-ordination and to count the number of objects they have.

Kindergarten for 3's & 4's has just begun and these children are running, keeping house, talking on phone, working puzzles and learning nursery rhymes. They are learning to be independent and to share and show concern for each other.

The Village - Room 1 - Children learn about animals, farms, towns, transportation, and people in the community who help. They build their own buildings, using their imaginations. Many forms of art are introduced through finger paint, tempera paint, straw painting, sand painting and free expression with crayons and paper.

Home Living Center Room 1 - Children experience many situations here and art out rolls of family members and their duties. Music is introduced by the newest ideas of being: Mr. Treble Cleff, Mr. Bass Cleff and Mr. Quarter-Note. The rhythms band is used as a means of free expression and the melody bells for listening to tones and records for hopping, skipping, jumping, dancing and marching to the music.

Big - Big Blocks are fun for everyone. They make good roads for big trucks and castles and all kinds of buildings. Sharing and relating to others is easy here. Children love to squeeze and mold the play dough and feel its texture.

These 3 and 4's in Room 2 build with blocks, use guidance toys, trucks, dolls and animlas and learn to relate to each other. They are introduced to the alphabet and numbers at an early age. Teachers are Room 1, Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan; Room 2, Mrs. Teddy Mitchell.

Watergate-Sign Of Times Says Mrs. Fore

"Water Gate has shaken the Faith of a lot of people, but it is just another sign of our times" says Mrs. Annie R. Fore. A member of Appomattox S.D.A. Church.

"In fact she was the first one to become a Seventh-Day Adventist in Appomattox County way back in 1921 and is at the present time a full time P.S. at the age of 77 years old. "People in prominent positions of trust could become confused in their choice between loyalty to a cause and that which is honest and straight forward indicates that our age has moved far from the era of adherence to the commandments of God," declares Mrs. Fore. She adds that she is not surprised that such conditions exist for when people--and even churches--toss aside the law of God, the Ten Commandments, there is really no basis for any kind of security in the world. These commandments are basic to happy living and without them we are in a real mess-- and that's what we've got with Water Gate. I have been reading up on the Water Gate situation. The Bible describes this condition as Babylon and that things will get worse before they will get better, according to what you read in the last book of the Bible. The only comfort the Christian finds in reading about these things--in Revelation 14--is the promise Babylon or these conditions will cease to exist at the second coming of Christ. The only safe course says Mrs. Fore. "Is to stay close to Christ and the principles give us in His Holy Word". I've been looking up texts on "Water Gate" as described in the Bible. A friend of mine has typed very nicely for many convenience a great number of these lists so I can pass them to others for 7 years or longer she has been calling me up to get me to look up scripture texts for her. Recently she is more interested than ever before. She says she takes a little Bible in her pocketbook and gives scripture texts on this subject- "If we could walk more closely within the shadow of the Divine Word, our world would be a different place in which to live.

Bible Emphasis Day is September 22.

Divine Services at the Appomattox Adventist Church are each Saturday. S. s. 10:00. Church Service at 11:15. We invite all from near and far away places whenever possible to come and worship with us.

Texts - I looked up in my Bible concerning Watergate 2 Kings,7:1; Genesis 23-10:18; Ruth 4 1-11; I Kings 22-10; Deut. 21-19 & 21-22; Deut. 23 13-21; Amos 5-15; Neh. 8-1; Neh. 8-8-18; Neh. 10-29; Neh. 13-8; Isa. 58-12
